

Rio Car Wash Provided over 400 Free Car Washes to Veterans on Veterans Day

FREDRICKSBURG, VA- On Veterans Day, November 11, Rio Car Wash gave 443 free car washes to veterans at their Stafford and Massaponax car wash locations.

“As a veteran myself, it is so important for our business to give back to fellow veterans,” says Neil Small, co-owner of Rio Car Wash. “For everything veterans do for us, it is the least we can do.”

Radio station 101.5 hosted a radio remote at the Stafford location to raise awareness for the event. Rio Car Wash honored free car washes to veterans all day on Veterans Day at their Stafford location at 70 Sebring Dr., and their Massaponax location at 10050 Jefferson Davis Hwy.

This offer is part of the international charity “Grace For Vets.” Grace For Vets is a united front of car wash operators that provide free car washes to veterans & service personnel each year on November 11 to honor their past & present service to their country, whether observing Veterans Day, Remembrance Day or Armistice Day.

Rio Car Wash was founded in 1995, and currently has four locations throughout Richmond and Fredericksburg, Virginia. For more information, visit riocarwash.com, or call 540-371-3636.
